

GEORGIA FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Donations given to area high schools

Georgia Federal Credit Union recently made donations to both Cedar Shoals High School and Clarke Central High School through their High School Spirit promotion.

Cedar Shoals received a check for $810 for the spring semester and Clarke Central received a check for $490. These checks were in addition to donation checks both schools received during the fall semester.

Georgia Federal Credit Union donates $10 to designated local high schools across the state for every new account opened during the academic year.
