Atlanta, GA (December 5, 2007) – Delta Community Credit Union announces that Christopher Danvers has been accepted to join the Filene Research Institute’s entrepreneurial team, the 30 Under 30 group. The Filene Research Institute was founded on the core values of the credit union philosophy and offers new perspectives, innovative products, sometimes controversial proposals and the ongoing search for better ways to serve credit union members.

Christopher Danvers began his career with Delta Air Lines in 1999 and moved to Delta Community Credit Union in 2002. Danvers was promoted to his current position as a Project Manager in 2006. He is responsible for managing the implementation of strategic initiatives and product and service development. Danvers has a Bachelor of Science degree in Management - Marketing and Sales from Kaplan University. In addition, he has earned the Project Management Professional certification (PMP) through the Project Management Institute (PMI), and he is currently enrolled in the Southeastern Regional Credit Union School (SRCUS). Danvers was one of 30 young professionals selected to participate in the 30 Under 30 work group from an outstanding field of 165 applicants.

“We are very proud of Chris for being selected to submit an application, which consisted of two essays, a personality test and a recommendation by Delta Community Credit Union’s CEO, Rick Foley,” said Todd Marksberry, EVP Delta Community Credit Union. “He has proven his commitment to the credit union movement with increasing responsibility and substantial problem-solving focus,” Marksberry added.

A full-service financial institution, Delta Community Credit Union serves the employees and family members of Delta, as well as select companies, associations and residents of Cherokee, Clayton, Cobb, Coweta, DeKalb, Fayette, Fulton, Gwinnett and Henry counties in the metro-Atlanta area.
